Adult Education Courses Set Up At Lincoln-Way

Registration for Adult education at Lincoln-Way High school will be held Tuesday, Sept. 25, and Thursday, Sept. 27, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The classes offered will be similar to those which have been offered before and will be determined by the demand of people within the community. Among the new faculty members who will be offering courses are Mrs. Mildred Foster, Home Economics department chairman, and Miss Margaret Gentry, who teaches business courses at Lincoln-Way.

According to Mrs. Foster, "all women of the community surrounding Lincoln-Way High school, including newly married and business girls, are invited to join a night class in home economics education. If you are interested in joining this class you are invited to help with its organization. Depending on desires, there will be instruction in clothing and sewing techniques or in other phases of homemaking education."

This is a good opportunity to keep up with the newer methods of sewing and modern developments in other phases of homemaking. Homemaking classes will meet on Thursday unless the group prefers another night.

Miss Gentry will teach one class in the business field. This course will probably be typing unless there are greater demands in other areas. Persons who are interested in other courses are urged to contact Lincoln-Way at once. It is expected that a broader offering in the business field will be provided during the second semester when Ralph McClintock, recently appointed head of the Business Education Department, is sufficiently recovered from his recent operation to assume full duties.

Mr. Kinney will again offer work in Arts and Crafts. The exact area will be determined after students have indicated their wishes.

In the agriculture field, courses will be offered in farm welding and in electrical wiring for the farm and home. These courses have proved to be popular with farmers in the past. If there are enough people interested, courses will also be offered in producing farm crops efficiently and in feeding, care, and management of livestock for profit.

Classes will meet once a week for a period of ten weeks with the first meeting night on Tuesday or Thursday following registration. Tuition for a regular ten-week course is $10 and a minimum of eight people must be enrolled in order for the class to continue. If there are eight or more people interested in a subject not offered, an attempt will be made to include it in the curriculum. Classes normally meet from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. on either Tuesday or Thursday.

Since Mr. Elmore's entire career in the life insurance field has been under the direction of Mr. Fash it was a natural development to be associated with him in his new position.

Mr. Elmore is the holder of the National Quality Award granted for outstanding service to policyholders and he is studying for his chartered Life Underwriters degree. He is a member of the Lions club, the Masonic fraternity and is president of Lincolnwood Civic Association.

PTG Board Plans Membership Drive

The executive board of the Lincoln-Way high school Parents Teacher group met in the home Ec. room of the school Sept. 5 with nine members present.

A membership drive is planned. Yet to be named is a chairman for the ways and means committee.

Attend Industrial Arts Conference at State University

Don Carter and Virgil Hammond, students in Industrial Arts, and their instructor, Mr. Joe Kruzich, attended a leadership conference Sept. 7, 8 and 9 at the University of Illinois and at Robert Allerton Park, Monticello. Attending this conference were 150-200 boys representing the 41 Illinois Industrial Education clubs.

The program for training club officers included speeches by the outstanding leaders in Industrial Arts Education, regional group delegate meetings, panel discussions, club money-makers, an Industrial Arts program by Dr. Walter Klehm and staff of Eastern State college, Charleston, and an exhibit of model aircraft which has been shown all over the U. S.

A mammoth manhunt is on for William Jeffries, 26, of 79th street, Lincoln Estates in Frankfort township.

Jeffries, who has a previous police record, is wanted now on charges of the kidnapping and rape of a 5 year old cousin. The victim, who has been in Silver Cross hospital since the attack, is now recovered sufficiently to return home.

Warrants for Jeffries were issued by Justice of the Peace Anthony Mackay in Joliet on complaint signed by the father of the victim.

And at the request of Sheriff Roy C. Doerfler the FBI has issued a warrant for the fugitive on a charge of flight to avoid prosecution. This device enables the federal bureau of investigation to place its nationwide facilities at the disposal of local law enforcing agencies in cases where federal laws are not involved. Hold Last Rites For Victim of Auto Accident

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from St. Peter's church, Frankfort, for Mrs. Harriet Ellen Piper, 40, Frankfort township, who died last Friday from injuries suffered in an automobile accident May 4.

She was unconscious when she arrived at St. James hospital, Chicago Heights, after the accident, and remained in that condition during the four months she lived.

Mrs. Piper was born in Beecher Sept. 3, 1916, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Kappe. She was a member of the Women's Guild of St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church at Frankfort, the Will County Home Bureau and was the chapter mother of the Future Homemakers of America at Peotone.

The accident which resulted fatally for Mrs. Piper occurred at the intersection of Sauk Trail and U. S. Route 54. The Pipers reside on a farm three miles south of Frankfort and a mile west. Mrs. Piper was enroute Chicago Heights at the time of the accident. She was alone in the car. The Piper car was hit by a northbound cattle truck, driven by Robert G. Bodwell, of Winterset, Ia. He escaped injury.

The Piper car was reported carried along the highway 190 feet before it went off the pavement and into a ditch.

Besides her husband, Russell, Mrs. Piper is survived by two daughters, Carol, 17 and Jane, 14; a son, Warren, 12; a brother, Henry, of Beecher and a sister, Mrs. Regina Krueger, of Clear Lake, Ia.

Removal was to the Hack funeral home at Beecher where the body remained until Monday noon when it was brought to St. Peter's church to lie in state until 2 o'clock when funeral services were held with the Rev. Erich Bizer officiating. Interment was in St. Luke's cemetery, Beecher.

Enrollment At Frankfort Shows Decline

Enrollment in the Frankfort public school this year totals 197, it was reported by Miss Viola Lankenau, principal, and this probably sets a record in the county because the enrollment this year is less than it was last year. Last year the opening enrollment was 208.

Schools have been showing an increase in growth annually for several years and this year has been no exception—except in the case of Frankfort.

Several families moved out of Frankfort since the close of school last year it was reported, and while more families are scheduled to take their places they have not arrived as yet, it was reported. Also seven children who otherwise would have enrolled in the Frankfort school this fall have registered at St. Mary's parochial school in Mokena.

The enrollment at the Frankfort school is divided as follows: 1st grade, 28; 2nd, 21; 3rd, 28; 4th, 30; 5th, 22; 6th, 29; 7th, 19 and 8th, 20.

The first grade enrollment this year is five more than last but a couple of years ago some 35 pupils registered in the first grade.

Reports from around the county state that the birthrate is still running high and the need for more classrooms has not lessened.

Right now the Frankfort's class space is ample to meet its enrollment needs, Miss Lankenau said, but, it was pointed out, no one can tell when the condition may change and more room is required.

Yesterday buses were chartered from the Gold Star line to carry students from the six upper grades to Lincoln-Way high school to attend the exhibit there by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

Plan Dance to Aid Louis Maly

Because Louis Maly, former resident of Mokena, was born and reared in Braidwood and graduated from the high school, his friends at Braidwood want to do something to help him in his trying time.

Mr. Maly was seriously injured while living in Mokena has been transferred to the Vets hospital at Iron Mountain, Mich., where his wife is living with her parents. She is working in the hospital. Mr. Maly is paralyzed from his waist down and has a long struggle for health before him.

While in a Joliet hospital his bills ran high, so high that he is as yet unable to pay them. Therefore, his friends in Braidwood plan to sponsor a dance for his benefit, Saturday evening, Oct. 6 in the Braidwood high school auditorium. All friends of the family are invited to attend. It has been stated that a number of cars filled with Mokena friends will attend the dance.

Farmer Almost Loses Hand

Robert Shilling, a farmer residing in Green Garden township, suffered severe injuries to his right hand on Wednesday of last week when it became caught in a forage chopper.

Shilling was operating the machine while helping to fill the silo on the Swift Research farm. He was alone in the field at the time and when an ear of corn became jammed he tried to work it out while the machine was still running it was reported.

The top roller caught his hand but Shilling succeeded in pulling it out before the bottom roller seized it. He went to the Hedges Clinic in Frankfort and was treated there for several deep gashes across the back of fingers and some severe bruises. He almost lost his hand.

Wunder Joins GOP Caravans

Circuit Clerk Paul V. Wunder of Will County, now a candidate for clerk of the appellate court of the second district, will spend the next two weeks on a tour of the area with Republican caravans.

The caravan this week is headed by U. S. Senator Everett Dirksen; next week it will be Gov. William G. Stratton.

The second appellate district is made up of all the counties of northern Illinois—except Cook—32 of them. Not all of these counties will be reached this first week but by the end of the second week the candidates will have covered all of them.

Later Mr. Wunder will visit various parts of the district by himself. This district is predominantly Republican.

Wunder was unanimously nominated for the post of clerk of the second appellate district by the Republican county chairmen of the 32 counties comprising it to fill a vacancy on the ticket due to the death of Justis Johnson. Johnson had held the office many years.

Wunder had been a candidate to succeed himself as circuit clerk but after his nomination as clerk of the appellate court he withdrew from the county race and his place on the ballot has been taken by Elmer Swansbro, of Joliet, who was chosen for the post by the Republican county central committee.

Find Russians Use New & Old Farm Methods

John Matasovic, a Mokena farm owner, returned this week from a tour of Russia and the Ukraine, Belgium, Denmark and Finland under the sponsorship of the Everett Mitchell NBC Harvest Tour.

He was one of 18 men invited from all over the country to make the trip. Homer Brethauer of Downers Grove, Martin Implement Co. at Orland Park, was also one of the five invited guests to make the tour from the midwest.

Matasovic, who also operates the Universal Welding Co. at New Lenox, could not be reached to obtain comments on his trip before going to press, but Brethauer said he found the people in Russia very interesting and friendly. He did, however, remark on their lack of gaiety. He said they were a very serious people who went about their business in an apathetic manner. They expressed great interest in the United States.

He was impressed by how hard the women in Russia work, doing labor usually done by men in western countries. The women, he said, were very heavy, probably caused by a starchy diet.

As their visit was of an agricultural nature, the group mainly visited collective farms. A mixture of old and new methods was noted in one farm visited by the group. A modern tractor was in evidence, but also plows drawn by oxen and horses. A great deal of hand labor is still used on Russian farms.

During their 18 day stay, they visited three collective farms and one state farm.

They found prices of food were much the same as in the United States. While butter is $3 a pound, the people prefer to use Sunflower seed oil, which is comparable in price to butter in America.

Pictures can be taken of mirages.

"Some people grow when given responsibility; others merely swell."

To Combine Music With Engineering At Illinois Tech

Rudolph Guzik, of Frankfort, who entered the Illinois Institute of Technology this week, will be home over the weekend to take care of piano students. A graduate of Lincoln-Way High school, he also plans to study music with the Vandercook College of Music.

He may accompany the choral group of Illinois Tech, and play the bassoon in the orchestra.

Girl Scout Leaders To Meet Tuesday

The first meeting to plan the Neighborhood fall program for the Mokena Girl Scouts will be held next Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 18, in the home of Mrs. Rudolph Engelhardt, Neighborhood chairman. The meeting is to begin at 1:30 o'clock.

There are eight Girl Scout troops in Mokena now, the latest addition being the senior girls troop of which Mrs. Clarence Berg is the leader. Mrs. Berg, of Marley, also is co-chairman of the Neighborhood organization.

Leader training is offered, Mrs. Engelhardt said, in two courses—one designed for those who have served or are serving as leaders and one for those beginning this work. The courses will be given by qualified trainers of Trailways Council in Joliet.

Cana Conference Program Draws Many Couples

Half of the Catholic couples married in the Chicago Archdiocese this year will first attend a Pre-Cana conference.

This is the prediction made by the Cana conference of Chicago in its annual report, just submitted to His Eminence, Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago.

The report traces the marriage education program developed by the last twelve years. This program has two main parts: Cana conferences for married couples, and Pre-Cana conferences for the engaged.

The name "Cana" derives from the biblical wedding feast at Cana, in Galilee, where Christ performed His first public miracle.

Most spectacular increase has been in the Pre-Cana program for engaged couples. Since the first conference was held ten years ago, 71,430 men and women have been reached by this program. In the year just passed attendance hit an all time high of 11,288.

The Cana report also shows the slower, but steady growth in conferences for married couples.

Last year 137 Cana days were held in the Chicago area—105 dealt with husband-wife relationships, 32 with parent child relationships. Four of the conferences were for parents of teen agers and one for parents of children making their first communion. The Cana conference approach is to deal with marriage in all its aspects—physical, spiritual, and psychological. For example, here is the format of a typical Pre-Cana conference program:

A young married couple will lead a discussion on how to cope with some of the daily problems of adjustment in marriage. A priest will explain how love—of God and of "one's" husband or wife—is the basis of true married happiness. And a specially trained doctor presents the physical knowledge needed in marriage.

Currently taking place in Chicago is the second Pre-Cana series for 1956, which got under way Sunday, July 8, and will continue thru December. A total of 57 conferences will be held.

Jeffries will be captured and brought back to face trial for a depraved and brutal crime.

A search of the fields and weeds in the vicinity of the Jeffries home was made Tuesday by a posse of some 75 armed men under the direction of Sheriff Doerfler after he had received a message from a woman to the effect that her son, a friend of the Jeffries, had told her the fugitive was hiding out nearby and was being fed by relatives.

Later when the youth, who was playing truant, was found and questioned by officers he claimed that he made up the story and that it was born by speculations on the part of himself and several cronies as to what they would do were they in Jeffries place.

That Jeffries may have returned to the area was given some support by the story of another woman who told authorities yesterday afternoon that when she went out of the house yesterday morning a man was standing nearby. He turned and ran, the woman said, but she was unable to give any description of him.

Some 20 members of the Cook county forest preserve ranger force, a large detail of state police under Lt. Gilbert Knater who was brought up in Frankfort and knows the countryside, and special deputies and service deputies of the sheriff's office made up the posse that searched the woods and fields.

Investigators have not dismissed the fact that Jeffries may have come back or will come back but they are inclined to believe that he is on the run. He fled on foot from his home Saturday night but an automobile was reported stolen in Matteson that night and the authorities believe Jeffries stole it. Theft, the records show, is nothing new for him.

According to the report at the sheriff's office the attack on the little girl occurred sometime around 8:30 o'clock. The child had been visiting an aunt of Jeffries. The youngster's father came to pick her up around 8:45 only to be informed that Jeffries had taken her.

The father went to the Jeffries home. There he found the youngster. The child had been bleeding and Jeffries had brought her home for his wife, Shirley, 23, to wash up. The father became suspicious, according to the report at the sheriff's office and called Frankfort police.

Policeman Albert Ziegler went to the house and then accompanied the father and girl to Hedges Clinic. An examination revealed that the youngster had been raped and that she suffered considerable damage. First aid was given at the clinic and the girl taken to the hospital where the damage was repaired. Marks also found on her throat showing that she had been choked. The youngster named Jeffries as her assailant.

In the meantime state police had been informed of the crime but it was not until around 9:45 that the Will county sheriff's office was apprised of the situation.

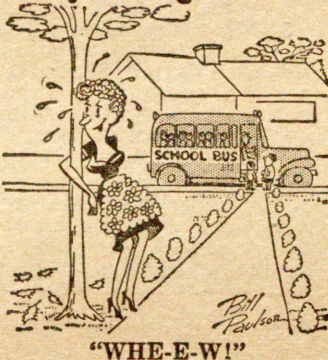

Meanwhile Lt. Knater and State Police Sgt. Robert Georgantas reached the Jeffries home only to find that he had fled. The officers found Jeff-ies bloodstained automobile parked near the house and his wife told them that a friend had called for him in a car and taken him away. Later she told them that he went away on foot, the report states.

Mrs. Jeffries professed not to know where her husband had gone but investigators believe that she did and she was taken into custody and locked in the county jail on a charge of being a material witness. Mrs. Jeffries was released Monday on bond of $2,500. Her mother, Mrs. Hazel Doze, of Lincoln Estates, is surety on the bond.

Jeffries was arrested for stealing grain in December, 1954 and brought into the Will county court on a charge of petit larceny but he was placed on probation.

Old Words That Sound Like New To Modern Ears, Still in Use

John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University
Clothing fashions change; like-wise fashions in words. Within a lifetime speech has changed much in Southern Illinois just as it has in most other places. Many words and phrases in common use 50 or more years ago are seldom heard now. This fact was brought to attention recently by a single expression made by an old gentleman in Pope county.

It was a wintry day and a unusual remark that was a good day for snow brought his response, "Yes, I'm afraid it is going to weather." The use of the old English expression 'afraid' and his somewhat unusual use of the word 'weather' aroused interest. Further conversation brought a few more strange words to mind and suggested still others.

A bit of thinking backward recalled a host of words that were once in common use but are now practically forgotten. Some such words that even yet lend spice to both spoken and written expressions have been gathered from memories of those times when they were in common use and are given here. They will doubtlessly suggest additional ones to the reader.

These old words and expressions may sometimes be puzzling to those who hear them now, unless they are used in such a way that their meaning is made obvious. An offer to carry a horse to water if your friend would tote the poke you were holding might leave the listener puzzled. At one time it was a common expression. It simply means that the one making the offer would lead the horse to water if the other would carry the bag. Understanding the meaning of poke, one can readily see why he should not buy a pig in a poke. The suggestion that one go cattawampus or catty-bias or catty-cornered plus across a field only meant that he should go diagonally all the way across it. If anything was put down cattawampus or catty-wampered it meant that it had not been placed in proper alignment. A man with a twisted face might have a jaw that was kinder cattawampered.

A turn of grist meant a sack of grain, generally corn, to be taken to the mill where the one who had carried or toted the sack to the mill would be required to wait his turn, somewhat as he would wait in line for tickets to a ball game.

Should one wish to designate the forenoon he would indicate it as the morning. The afternoon was evening until early candlelight when it was night. Farmers worked from sunup until sundown, unless the worker should begin or quit at quarter-ing time. Wages of six bits a day, twenty dollars a month were considered fair pay.

Neighbors, often carrying a lantern burning coal oil or lamp oil, would come to set until bedtime. Hay was gathered in cocks or shocks or even in doodles in the field and hauled to a place near the barn or cattle shed where it was placed in ricks or rectangular stacks. Wheat was tied in bundles and shocked, later to be hauled to the threshing site and stacked.

There it would be threshed (thrashed) and the straw used to build a straw shed.

A boy, after properly sparking a girl, naturally with her consent, might buss her or they might even smooch. A boy might be sacked, given the mitten or kicked by a girl when he tried to see her home after church had let out, several ways of saying that his request for a date was denied. This same boy, might become ashy, touchous, or wrathful when joshed about the incident. He might even start a ruckus! Despite all these the boys were often not easy to shut off. Most girls preferred boys who were properly diked out.

A feist was a small cur dog. Lumber or trumpery was simply junk, and household goods were plunder. Dragon flies were then mosquito hawks or snake doctors or adder flies. Peckerwoods and woodpeckers were the same thing and included those birds which pecked holes in trees and stumps. You were proud instead of pleased and pulled flowers instead of plucking them. A buck was a male animal or dollar, or even a rack used in sawing wood.

People then said reckon and meant suppose. A spicket was a faucet. Men were stout instead of strong. When rocks and grindrocks changed to whetstones and grindstones. Those born out of wedlocks were woodcoits, old field colts, or were base born. A dodger, ash cake or ash pone was a hand-shaped corn dodger baked in the ashes of the fireplace and not a member of the Brooklyn baseball team.

A squal was a sudden flurry of weather often ushering in a cool snap. In summer time these somewhat sudden changes might bring gully washers. Nearly always they were accompanied by falling weather that generally laid soon.

Dip was sauce to pour over pudding, and sop was gravy. A branch or run was a creek, often called a crick. Coverlids were kivers for the bed. A Coverlids and counterpanes comfort was a heavier padded bed cover that had been tacked. Butterbeans are now lima beans and sallet has become greens. One then backed a letter; now he addresses it.

Soil Test Gives Clues to Need for Plant Nutrients

FIVE steps for taking accurate soil samples were listed here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on suggestions by Purdue University agronomists:

- 1—Pick an area on your farm that is uniform in color and soil texture—one which has had similar cropping and fertilizer treatment.
- 2—Avoid mixing soils that are light and dark colored, or those with a different crop history or past fertilizer treatment.
- 3—Use a sampling tube, auger or shovel to remove a small sample from surface to plow depth.
- 4—Stay away from fertilizer bands in row crops, farm lanes, field borders, feeding areas, sand ridges and areas within 100 feet of gravel roads.
- 5—Mix the samples representing one area thoroughly in a clean pail. Spread out the final mixture to dry. Use enough of this mixture to fill one soil carton.

Agronomists advise sampling soils this summer and early fall, and sending them promptly to the soil testing laboratory. This will give plenty of leeway for the soil testing results to be back in time for fall ordering of fertilizer.

Soil sampling instructions, forms to fill out and shipping containers can be obtained from local county agents or fertilizer dealers.

Soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes.

"Purdue agronomists point out that soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes from his field," says the committee. "Hence it pays to make as accurate samples as possible."

"Soil tests can provide a good guide for determining the plant food reserves of the soil. They can help a farmer provide his crops with the balanced fertility needed to get profitable returns from his investment in fertilized."

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

Weddings, Engagements, Clubs, Women's Activities

Members of Woman's Club at Orland Put in Busy Summer

Altho the Orland Park Woman's club has not met for regular meetings during the summer months, the members by no means were idle were idle. They have met three times to prepare dressings for the South Suburban Area American Cancer society. On Wednesday, Sept. 5th, 14 members met at the home of Mrs. Fred Blackstone to make these dressings. Included in the group were members of the Orland Park Methodist church. This project is not confined to members of the clubs, anyone interested can join in this worthwhile project. Meetings start at 10 o'clock in the morning, a break for lunch at noon, everyone attending, should bring her own sandwiches. The hostess furnishes coffee and dessert.

Hereafter the sessions will be held in the Methodist church social room, the first Wednesday of each month. Those who cannot serve the whole day, may come anytime. White sheets and pillowcases ready for discard are needed as they are the source of the dressings. The committee in charge of the "Silver Tea" has also been busy making plans. The affair is to be held next Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fred Blackstone. Members are asked to bring a guest.

Mrs. Harry Phil, chairman for the annual "Penny" social has been working out detailed plans. The social will be held in the Grade school gym, Friday, Sept. 28, beginning at 7 p.m. There will be the usual "silent" auction, games, many useful articles, and refreshments. In past years, coffee and doughnuts were served, but the committee thought a "salad bar" and cake would be quite attractive, and that is what it will be this year.

Mrs. Pihl has called a meeting for the various committees at her home, Monday, Sept. 17 at 1 o'clock to map out final details of the social.

The first regular meeting of the club will be held in October.

Making Wine For Family Use? Better Clear with Uncle Sam

The grape harvest season is at hand, and William N. Woodruff, assistant regional commissioner, alcohol and tobacco tax, for the Chicago region, wishes to inform prospective wine makers that altho the head of a family may produce 200 gallons of wine per year taxfree for the use of his immediate family, he must first register his intention to produce such wine with the alcohol and tobacco tax division of the Internal Revenue service.

The prospective wine maker must obtain forms for this purpose from the office of the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, P. O. Box 1144, Chicago 90, Ill. Applicants wishing to obtain forms from the office in person may call at the 17th Floor, 17 N. Dearborn st. These forms must be submitted to the above office in duplicate, at least five days before the production of wine is started. If the applicant is qualified one copy of the form will be returned as authorization to produce not more than 200 gallons of wine during the twelve month period from July 1 thru June 30. A new form must be filed for each year in which it is desired to produce such wine.

Mr. Woodruff warns that the exemption given under federal law for the production of tax-free wine is solely for family use and does not apply to an unmarried person, unless he qualifies as head of a family, or a married man living apart from his family or to the production of wine by corporations or partnerships for commercial purposes. Each year a number of persons who have made wine for family use are taxed at the regular rate, according to the alcoholic content, and may face criminal prosecution for the reason that they fail to register their intention to produce wine.

JACK MAYPOLE

Back in 1927 Ward Angilley of Marysville, Calif., saw a used outboard motor in the window of a second hand store. He spent his vacation money to get it, built a boat from this and that, and set forth on the ten tulle-filled waters of Ellis lake to see what his do-it-yourself outfit would do.

A rivalry developed at once between Ward and Stewart Tapley, a boating friend. This led to Ward's purchase of a more powerful motor and used a racing shell to keep pace with Tapley.

Competition glowed to white heat and races were staged day and night. Irate citizens aroused from slumbers swamped the Marysville council with protests and the council banned out-boarding on the lake.

On this weekend, Sept. 16-16, citizens of Marysville will gather at the lake to honor Ward Angilley with a regatta named for him. We will be on hand to do our bit to add to the lustre of the one man in the country who has raced more events and won more trophies than we have.

It will be a pleasure to see again the man with whom we slugged it out in Class C hydros in the national championships at Chicago in 1932. Then we both were young and speed and spray were all that mattered.

The years have brought a well deserved prestige to Ward Angilley in the outboard racing field. Now in his 29th year of racing he has held 11 world records and won over 300 trophies. He has held, at least once, every title possible with the type of equipment he has used.

Ward made this possible through persistence. Undaunted of his ancient car and in 1928 by being banned from his home lake he loaded his racer on top drove to Lake Tahoe. There he won a first in Class C hydros. In August he took a first in the same class and won a first in free-for-all at Isleton, Cal.

Noting the successes of its outboarding son Marysville re- lented and the council approved a race on Ellis lake in November of 1928. Ward won the Class C hydros event and finished his first year with six trophies.

After that it was a steady succession of races, firsts, records and trophies for Ward.

At the Marysville regatta Ward will race again. But this time we will be on the shore on a non-racing boat watching him head into the turns.

We will, that is, unless someone just might have a boat that needed a driver. Who knows?

Bettenhausen Breaks All Records in 100 Mile Race at N. Y.

Tony Bettenhausen, who has done more to publicize Tinley Park than any other citizen, broke all records in the 100-mile "Big Car" race at the state fair-grounds tracks in Syracuse, New York last Saturday.

Bettenhausen, who won the classic in Syracuse in 1953 and 1951 took the lead on the 19th lap from Johnny Thomson, of Boyerton, Pa.

Jimmy Bryan finished second, about a half mile behind the flying Bettenhausen. Thompson came in third.

The local race driver covered the 100-mile distance in one hour, six minutes, 4.61 seconds, approximately 20 seconds better than the standard set by Bob Skeikert in 1951, to win first place money of $3,750.

Organize New Cub Scout Pack

Cub Pack 253 held its first official meeting Aug. 31. Mr. Fredine, student pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, gave the invocation. The Brotherhood of the church sponsors this group and the charter was accepted by their secretary, John Funk.

All the boys have passed their Bobcat requirements and at this meeting were presented with their neckerchiefs. Each Cub Scout explained some phase of scouting; community singing followed and then refreshments were served.

The committee consists of Bill Wheeler, institutional representative; Robert Simonsen, submaster; Donald Baskin and David Templeton, assistant submasters; Harold Peterson, chairman; Fred Dinger, secretary; William Houle, treasurer; Milton Carr, Irwin Ernst, Jr., Walter Gindville, William Zimmerman, committeemen and Virginia Craft, Marge Zimmerman and Myrtle Houle, Den Mothers.

Any boy interested in joining the pack may contact Mr. Simonsen or any other committeeman for further information.

Mrs. Robt. Marshall New Member of Heart Council

The Heart Councils of the Chicago Heart Association which function throughout the year in the Chicagoland suburban area as Communities Heart Service organizations, are adding new members to their groups.

In Cook County South, Chairman Karl Treen, 129 E. 156th St., Harvey, announces the names of additional volunteers who have been accepted as members of the Heart Council. Among them is Mrs. Robert Marshall, 16908 Elm Lane Dr., Tinley Park.

As part of its Heart Service program, members of the Council will make available on request literature on heart disease; speakers and films for clubs and organization meetings; information on the prevention and care of rheumatic fever; vocational guidance for school children with heart disease.

The Council also has information on a referral service for heart patients, which gives sources of medical care and counseling. It also acts as a headquarters for information relative to making memorial gifts and bequests in the interest of HEART.

An individual seeking any of the services provided by the Council is invited to contact a council member (not a doctor) in the area in which he lives. Prompt attention will be given each request.

Civil Defense Week Opens Sept. 9 with State Observance

Illinois' Civil Defense will participate in a week long observance of National Civil Defense Week, Sept. 9th-15th, according to an announcement by Gen. Robert M. Woodward, State CD Director.

The majority of Illinois' 408 CD corps and their over 350,000 volunteers have plans for special events and demonstrations during this occasion.

Gen. Woodward said the observance was proclaimed by President Eisenhower, and Gov. William G. Stratton called upon all citizens to support Civil Defense Week in Illinois.

Gen. Woodward emphasized that the September 9-15 CD Week observance will give every CD organization an opportunity to publicize progress made towards individual family and community preparedness for disaster. It will also provide a means for stimulating interest and recruiting new volunteers for CD activity and training, he said.

INFANT WELFARE HAS MORNING SESSION ONLY

The Infant Welfare will be held Sept. 14 in the Municipal building in Tinley Park from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. There will be no afternoon sessions.

ABOUT TIME HE LEARNED

Illinois Tax Climate Good For Business

The favorable Illinois tax climate was underlined by a recent U. S. Bureau of the Census study, the Taxpayer's Federation of Illinois reported today. Using the Census Bureau figures, the Federation finds that a smaller portion of the income of Illinois taxpayers goes for state taxes than in any of the states surrounding Illinois or in any state immediately competitive.

Illinois state taxes for 1956 are estimated to be 3.1 per cent of personal income payments. Personal income includes wages, salaries, net income of proprietors and farmers, dividends, interest received, net rents, insurance, allotment and pension benefits, and the like. This compares to 5.8 per cent in Tennessee, 5.5 per cent in Iowa, 5.0 per cent in Wis., 4.8 per cent in Mich. and 3.4 per cent in Indiana, Missouri and Ohio.

The latest information from the Census Bureau reinforces the findings in the study, Illinois Tax Climate, issued by the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois last spring. This study reached a similar conclusion using 1955 tax data.

The favorable Illinois tax climate helps draw industry which in turn means bigger payrolls and a broader tax base. "But Illinois will lose this favorable climate if steeper state taxes are imposed," the Taxpayers' Federation warned.

Experiments at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station of the University of Illinois have shown that shortleaf pine plantation has used more than 30 inches of water out of the soil when it was available.

Every hog needs 10 square feet of shade.

Can Magic--Quick Fruit Platter

While we've usually plenty of fresh fruit, there are days and seasons of the year when the variety isn't all we could desire, so here's a hint from the country's biggest fruit growing area, Florida, for extending what fresh things we have on hand. Grand idea, too, for those times when company drops in and you haven't much in the fresh larder. It's a means of extending your fresh with Florida's fine canned grapefruit sections, so handy and economical.

Keep a can or two of the grapefruit sections in your freezing compartment and you can make this recipe do more than double duty. It can be salad, dessert, or first course with just the addition of a little fresh fruit in season and the turn of a can opener.

Frozen Grapefruit And-Fruit Medley

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| 1 can (1-pound) Florida grapefruit sections | Honeydew melon slices |
| Watermelon wedges | Cantaloupe slices |
| | Fresh cherries, pitted and halved |

Place unopened can Florida grapefruit sections in freezing compartment of refrigerator several hours or overnight. When ready to serve, prepare fresh fruit. Open can of frozen sections at both ends; remove contents in one piece. Cut into 4 slices; serve with fruit.

YIELD: 4 servings.

Park Forest Art Fair Entries For Outdoor Show Close Sept. 15

All artists and craftsmen in the south suburban area are invited by the Park Forest Art Center to exhibit at the first annual outdoor art fair. It is to be held in the Park Forest shopping area on Saturday, Sept. 22 and Sunday, Sept. 23 from noon to dark.

Paintings, had loomed materials, ceramics, jewelry and sculpture will be on display. In event of rain, the fair will be postponed until the following week-end.

All exhibitors must be over 16 years of age. Since the Art Center wishes the fair to be as professional as possible the committee in charge reserves the right to reject unsuitable material.

An entry fee of $2 for each exhibitor will be used by Park Forest Art Center for fair expenses and Center's activity fund.

Each artist will be assigned an area of eight linear feet for his exhibit and is to provide his own means of display. Entry blanks must be obtained from Mrs. E. H. Rothschild, 4 Rocket Circle, SK 5-7167 or Gerritt Beverwyk, 355 Neola, SK 5-6190. Blanks must be submitted by Sept. 15.

The theme of the fair is patterned after the "Old World" European market place fairs.

20 More Buy Slot Licenses

(Community News Service) Twenty more $250 federal gaming stamps locations licensed for slot machines or pinball games used for gambling pay-offs, and eleven $50 wagering stamps in Cook county were announced last week by H. Alan Long, district director of internal revenue. This brought the total to 51 gaming and 162 wagering stamps for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Six of the slot machine locations were in Chicago Heights, bringing its total to nine, only one behind the ten locations in Chicago. Calumet City has six to date.

In wagering stamps, Blue Island leads with 44, having added two, followed by Chicago with 39, an increase of eight for the week, and Cicero with 36, none having been added there.

Heed Hangtags, Experts Advise In Outlying Area Gains

Handtags on new garments should be carefully studied, according to textile and laundering experts at American Institute of Laundering, the research and educational center for the professional laundry industry.

With the growing popularity of cotton in sportswear, the problems of chlorine retentive finishes continue to grow. Garments whose hangtags warn against bleaching in chlorine bleaches probably will be ruined if the directions are not followed.

Wrinkle resistant finishes should be watched. White garments must be bleached to retain their whiteness. If they have been finished to "resist wrinkling," they should be bleached with a perborate type bleach. These bleaches can be identified by the label marking "Safe for Wools and Silks."

The ease in caring for "minimum care" garments can be questioned. Textile and laundering authorities at A.I.L. point out that many hangtags on these garments are as extensive as text books. Some tags carry seven-or-eight step washing directions and run from 100 to 200 words. The results promised on the tag usually are highly qualified.

Housewives are advised that when buying "minimum care" garments they should look for the Certified Washable Seal. If been rigidly tested and retested a garment has this Seal, it has ed to make sure of its washability characteristics.

Last year, 20,500 veterans and dependents of veterans gave the American Red Cross power of attorney to represent them before the Veterans Administration.

Housewives Say...

- Dirt and grime wipe off easily.
- Never needs waxing... it's time-saving.

- Resists staining, chipping, skidding.

(Community News Service) The county building and zoning bureau last week reported construction is increasing in unincorporated areas of the county as indicated by the rise in the number of July building permits issued.

For the month a total of 666 permits were given out representing a total valuation of $9,292,897. Seven of the permits were in the no fee classification which includes churches, schools and farm buildings which would have a valuation of $376,900, bringing the total valuation to $9,669,797.

The July total compares with 601 issued in June at a value of $8,798,510 and with 518 permits in July last year with a total valuation of $6,435,681.

Of the 666 issued in July, 429 were for residences, five for business buildings, two industrial plants, 68 alterations and additions, 133 accessory buildings, one new septic system, 10 wells and 18 miscellaneous projects.

Reason for satisfaction is found in the news that spending in fiscal 1957 will be reduced to $388 per capita, $81 lower than the last Democrat fiscal year of 1953.

In 1955, the American Red Cross gave $13,394,100 in financial assistance to servicemen, veterans, and their dependents.

MUST WE GO TO CHURCH TO BE CHRISTIANS?

You've probably heard people comment at times on the fact that their Catholic neighbors go to church so often. Perhaps you have wondered yourself... is all this necessary?

Catholics, you may be sure, have good reasons.

Going to Mass on Sunday is, of course, an obligation for every Catholic. Confession and Holy Communion at least once a year are a sacred duty. But most Catholics go to Confession and receive Holy Communion oftener... some every month, some every week, some every day.

There are also many other special services and devotions for which Catholics go to church. In the average city, the Catholic Church is always open - and seldom empty. Many will enter the church at any hour of the day to visit Jesus Christ present on the altar, mindful of His invitation: "Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

Catholics believe that Christ not only called upon us to honor and serve God... but prescribed the ways in which we should do so. He did not say how often we must go to church... nor how many prayers we were to recite. But He did establish a Church with the power and authority to carry on His work... and He promised that His Church would last to the end of time - that it would have God's protection in teaching all men to observe all things He had commanded, especially to believe and to be baptized and thereby become members of His Church to attain the purpose of their lives.

And how do Catholics know theirs is Christ's Church?

Because it possesses the distinguishing marks Christ gave His Church. It covers the earth as Christ said it would. Unchanged after nearly 2,000 years, it continues to live and grow, in fulfillment of His promise that His Church would last to the end of the world.

But the most convincing mark that He gave it is its unity of faith, worship and obedience under the authority of the lawful and historical successor of Peter, the first Bishop of Rome and the "rock" upon which Christ built His Church. Just as Peter was the first Pope and the first Vicar of Christ, so also is Pius XII the 262nd Pope and the Vicar of Christ today.

If you would like to know more about the distinguishing characteristics which Christ declared His Church must have and which the Catholic Church possesses today, we will be glad to send you, in a plain wrapper, without cost or obligation, an interesting and enlightening pamphlet. And nobody will call on you. Write today for Pamphlet KC-2.

Tinley Finishes 2nd in Police League Championship Series

The Tinley team fell before Leyden in the finals of the Lohman Police League title tourney after an uphill battle which was decided in the last inning when Leyden scored five runs to sew up the championship.

Tinley, winner of the south section played North Palos, winner of the central section last Saturday, lost 10-7 due to errors and misplays. Jerry Miller, Bob Rodger, Ronald Stege and Dale Hartwig did the hurling for the local team.

Tinley returned to Lincoln Park, scene of the championship play, on Sunday and played one of their best games of the season when they trimmed North Palos 10-2 to eliminate them from the playoffs.

Bob Rodger, pitcher, held their opponents to two singles, while striking out eight. Rodger also led the attack with three hits, followed by Hartwig and Hug with two apiece.

Their next opponent was Leyden whom they beat in a close game which went extra innings behind the four hit pitching of Jerry Miller and Jerry O'Neil's hit in the eighth inning.

To decide the championship, Tinley and Leyden had to play another game after a 15-minute intermission.

Tinley opened the scoring in the first inning when Lucas and Hug drew passes and Lucas scored on Miller's hit to center. However, Leyden scored four times in the second on four hits and two errors.

Tinley came back in the fifth to score two runs when Hug and Hartwig singled and Rodger followed with a double. Leyden sewed up the game in the last inning by scoring five runs. The boys were awarded with second place trophy.

Star Drivers Will Meet in Feature Race

Willie Wildhaber and Bob Tattersall will be gunning for supremacy in the 50 lap feature division of the midget auto races Saturday night at Joliet Memorial Stadium, but there'll be plenty of outside competition for the two aces.

"Wild" Willie, of Lexington, Ill., and Tattersall, the Streator Streak, each has taken one 50 lap main event this season. In addition, Tattersall has won four others at the 25 lap distance, to clinch the track championship.

Heading the drivers in the field of 40 who'll be out to stop the two long distance stars will be Johnny Riva of Morton Grove. Riva, with two feature victories to his credit, is the only driver besides Tattersall with more than one.

Four other former feature winners will be in the lineup Saturday: Tony Saylor of Joliet, Johnny Meyers of Chicago, Ken Rubright of Lyndon, and George Sellery of Chicago.

Phil Ashline of Kankakee, Paul Kerber of Elgin and Jolietans Sam Robinson, Bernie Wilhelmi and Red Wallace will be seeking first feature wins.

Also on the program Saturday will be an exhibition of 16 "customized" autos, which will be driven around the track during intermission. These cars won honors in a Labor Day show sponsored by the Joliet Road Runners club.

Prior to the 50-lap feature will be four heat races, a handicap

Klepper Bros. Making Dough While Most People Are Asleep

Elwood Klepper

Gervis Klepper

By Anne Rodger

While the rest of the town sleeps, Gervis, Elwood and Floyd Klepper, are at work baking the goods to keep their two stores supplied in Tinley Park and Homewood.

Gervis, who was the first of the Klepper brothers to become a baker, learned his trade as a teen-ager in a local bakery. Since then, he has been employed in bakeries in Joliet, Blue Island and Chicago.

While in service he produced baked goods for the U. S. army in France, Belgium and Luxembourg as a member of a mobile baker outfit.

He and Elwood became partners in the Tinley bakery store in 1946 with Gervis operating the store while Elwood continued with his job as a time study engineer. He had been employed in this capacity for 12 years before entering the bakery business as a full-time profession in 1953 when they opened the Homewood store. Gervis works the latter store which has five employees including himself and another baker.

Floyd started working in the Tinley store eight years ago. The local store employs four women clerks. Floyd, Elwood and one other baker keep the store supplied with baked goods.

Gougar Family Reunion

The Gougar family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Gougar Sunday, Sept. 9 with 32 family members present. All brought well filled picnic baskets and gathered at noon for a picnic dinner served cafeteria style on the porch and lawn of the old homestead. A special treat was a five gallon can of home made ice cream which was made by Harry and Joe Gougar and their families. A short business meeting was called to order by David Gougar, chairman. Eva Gougar reported on family members who live at distant parts of the country and were unable to attend. Davis Gougar read a letter from relatives living in Denver, Colo. Minutes of the meeting were recorded by Elizabeth J. Gougar.

Appointed to the planning committee for next year were, Joe Gougar, Harry Gougar, and John Bourg. The day chosen for next year's reunion was the 2nd Sunday in Sept. Davis Gougar was elected as chairman for the coming year.

After an afternoon spent playing baseball, horseshoes, and croquet, the family enjoyed a picnic supper on the lawn. All reported having enjoyed this reunion, the first one held by the Gougars in many years.

Musical Recital

Last Wednesday evening, a musical recital was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Cullison, Inner Court circle, given by their son Larry for his piano and organ students.

The program started at 7 pm. with many of the student's parents, friends and relatives in attendance. Those who took part on the organ were, Lynn Ann Schroeder, Mrs. J. L. Stienley, Arnold Munchaffen, Mary Kay McCure, Joyce Scheer and Raydene Cook. Piano selections were given by Nancy Beadle and Mary Ann Sampson.

The entire program was recorded by the courtesy of the Fowler Music co., and Don Wennlund. Pictures of the students and of all the guests were taken. After the program, refreshments were served on the breezeway of the home while Mrs. Raymond Cook and Larry Cullison entertained with several selections on the organ and piano.

Several guests remained to hear the recording of the recital. Although not all of the students were present, Larry expressed his thanks to all whom he had taught and enjoyed working with this past year. He left Monday for Illinois Wesleyan university at Bloomington to prepare for his musical career.

Register for Fall Program at Palos Center

The fall program of educational and recreational activities at the Community Center foundation Palos Park is now being formulated.

Registrations are being taken for classes in ceramics and painting which will open the first week in October. Mrs. Howard Fish and Mrs. Marvin Kutchinski who have conducted similar classes previously will again instruct. Both are talented teachers and artists.

Two ceramics classes, each to include a series of ten weekly sessions, are being scheduled one will meet Monday evening from 7:30 to 9 starting on Oct. 1. The other will be held on Wednesday afternoons from 1 to 3 starting on Oct. 3. It is surprising how, in these classes, even the beginners are able to create beautiful and unusual articles suitable for Christmas giving. The Craft shop at the Foundation has a professional type kiln in which articles made in the classes are fired.

The painting classes will start Tuesday evening, Oct. 3 at 7:30. Mrs. Fish will teach the basic principles of art to beginners. This rudimentary material is presented in an attractive easy to understand manner. Mrs. Kutchinski will demonstrate four lessons each in water color and oil techniques for advanced students. If the artist desires, he may concentrate on one medium for the entire period.

Woodworking, religion, Spanish and English will be offered on Tuesday evenings if enough interest is indicated to make up a complete class in any given subject. It is planned to open this series on October 9 so that the ten classes can be completed before the holiday season. The educational committee would appreciate hearing from persons who might be interested in these courses or who might suggest additional courses.

Square dancing has traditionally been one of the popular recreational activities at the Foundation so the Great Hall has been reserved for square dancers on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Anyone interested in participating in any part of the program is requested to call the Foundation week days.

It is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. (Matthew 10:20)

When I was still a young boy, I heard a preacher speak about Samuel and how God had spoken to him. I went home so much impressed with the sermon that I resolved to hear God speak to me.

That night I knelt beside my bed and asked Him to speak to me, for I longed to hear His voice and advice. I stayed in that position for a long time but heard nothing. Finally, I decided to go to sleep. I had not lost hope; I said to myself "Maybe God will speak to me at another time, in another manner."

Many years have passed since that night. Now I can look back and say that God has spoken to me. I have heard His voice many times in many different ways. He has guided my life.

True, God does not speak to us when we decide we want Him to, but He will come to us when we seek Him diligently and in sincerity and truth.

Christian Science Churches
Divine Mind's triumph over the forces of materialism will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday, Sept. 16, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter."

Accounts of divine power and healing—including Joshua's victory at Jericho and Christ Jesus' walking on the sea—will be among passages read from the Holy Bible.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read (139:4): "From beginning to end, the Scriptures are full of accounts of the triumph of Spirit, Mind, over matter. Moses proved the power of Mind by what men called miracles; so did Joshua, Elijah, and Elisha."

The Golden Text will include the following (Psalms 81:10): "I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt."

Put New Life in Old Alfalfa With Fall Top-Dressing

NEW life can be put into old alfalfa fields with a top-dressing this fall of phosphate-potash fertilizer, reports the Middle West Improvement Committee.

Many of these fields have produced abundant hay crops during the spring and summer. As a result, a heavy drain has been made on the soil's reserves of phosphate and potash. So replenishment is needed in the form of plant food.

How much fertilizer to add, and what ratio to use, can be determined by a soil test that will give an idea of the soil's reserves of phosphate and potash, the committee points out.

On many Midwestern soils, agronomists recommend adding a fertilizer mixture such as 0-10-30, or 0-9-27 at the rate of 300 to 500 pounds per acre. If a test indicates the soil is low both in phosphate and potash, then a ratio such as 0-20-20 may be profitable.

If a boron deficiency occurs, some soils men advise applying about 30 pounds of borax per acre in addition to the phosphate-potash fertilizer.

One of the big benefits of top-dressing alfalfa fields in the fall is that the plant food helps the legumes store up nutrients in their roots. Strong, well-fed roots anchor themselves more solidly in the soil and come through severe winter weather in better shape.

Knots in pine logs are almost imperishable, decaying much less rapidly than the log itself.

for Thy guidance. Thou hast always been with us and ready to speak to us. Sometimes we have not listened to Thee or sensed that Thou wert speaking to us. Help us to hear and heed Thy voice that we may live in the spirit of the Master. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

By faith we hear God speaking to us; by Christ's love in us we try to do His will.

Business and Finance

Maurice P. Angland

The Chicago Federal Reserve Bank and the Northern Trust Co. have issued very optimistic reports for business during the balance of this year and into 1957. Arthur O. Dietz, president of C.I.T. Financial Corp., the largest installment credit organization, reports that installment credit was never on a sounder base than at present.

Mr. Dietz states that more than half of the families in the U.S.A. have no installment debt. He also states that only 13 percent owe as much as $500 in installment debt. He points out that installment debt is largely concentrated among those best able to carry debt—young married in the middle or high income brackets.

The September report of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank states that the steel shut down accomplished a steel inventory adjustment at the right time. The bank reports that there has been no significant repercussion in the business picture due to the weakness in auto, farm machinery, and home building. They regard this lack of repercussion as reassurance of the derlying strength of the business picture.

The report goes on to state that department store sales set a new high in July. Reports indicate that retailers are expecting continued record sales the remainder of this year.

The Northern Trust Co. expects a greater than seasonal rise in business for the balance of 1956. This bank also points out that production plans for the auto industry for the fourth quarter of this year, will be only 10 per cent below the high rate of 1955.

The Federal Reserve reports developments on the price front has been in farm prices. From December thru June, average farm prices increased by 10 percent and in July were 3 per cent higher than last year. Further that seasonal declines as crops are harvested, will be less than usual.

The Reserve Bank goes on to state, "But most significant for business and financial planning was evidence that a mild but unmistakable rise in the general price level is under way." Almost half of Purchasing Agents Association of Chicago, reported paying higher prices for their principal purchases.

Even before settlement of the steel dispute, the wage-price spiral had started again. In an attempt to improve profit margins in the face of rising costs, typewriters, automobile tires, TV sets, beer and many household appliances were marked up from 2 to 5 per cent.

There is now in process a rather substantial increase in wages of the aluminum workers and this increase must be passed along in the form of increased costs to be consumers. This pattern may be expected in other industries soon.

In the second half of last year, sharply lower farm prices offset a 4 per cent increase in industrial goods with result that the wholesale index moved up only slightly, but now farm prices and non-farm prices are both moving upward. The consumer price index hit a record high in June with July higher. Food items had the greatest rise this year altho all major items have been creeping upward. There has been softness in only a few price indexes such as lumber and textiles.

Tree Check May Save Money for Home Buyers

If you're buying a home on the ready-built, already-landscaped basis take a close look at the trees and you may save some headaches and considerable added expense.

This is the advice of D. F. Hayman, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co., who points out builders may or may not do a good job of protecting trees on the home site.

Among the things that can affect the health and vigor of the trees that frame your dream house are grade changes, proximity of sewers, driveways and other improvements, as well as the variety and condition of the trees themselves.

Before making too generous an allowance for the wooded grounds, you can look for certain clues to ailing trees. Great patches of missing bark indicate possible serious damage from home construction machinery. Dying branches and wilting trees may signal extensive underground injury.

THE NEWS-BULLETIN
Thu. Sept. 13, 1956 Sec. 2 Pg. 9

Where trees are considered a major factor in arriving at a sales price, the prospective home owner would do well to have a professional tree man look over the grounds. Removal costs of larger trees can be amazingly high - as much as several hundred dollars if branches extend over buildings, shrubbery beds or other improvements.

Loss of one or more attractive trees will be definitely reflected in lower valuation of your property.

Highlights Of Farm Life

By W. F. Whiteside
Cook Co. Asst. Farm Advisor

The 1956 4H club year is drawing to a close. To 4H members this means completing, summarizing and evaluating record books and turning them over to their 4H leader. Leaders and the County 4H Committee go over the records and submit the most outstanding ones for county and state honors. To tell the complete story of the members' project work, the records must be neat and accurate. Ronald Kollman and Audrey Mascitti, King and Queen of the 4H Fair tell me that carefully kept records contributed greatly to their success in 4H club work. They urge all 4 H'ers to give careful attention to records throughout the year. Last minute guesses do not spell success.

Silo filling will be in full swing very soon. The chopped forage will provide excellent feed for livestock when the snow fall paints the landscape white. Take steps to make sure you are around, deliver the silage to the livestock. Carelessness with machinery in the field or on the road is not the way to do it. Keep shields in place, stop machinery for cleaning and adjustment, and use caution when traveling on the highway with farm machinery. One third of all tractor fatalities occur on public roads. Mile for mile it is safer to operate an automobile on public roads than it is a tractor.

Summer's bounty of cantaloupes and muskmellons is spilling into many markets. Which should you choose for your table?

Norman Oebker, University of Illinois vegetable crops specialist, says that the quality of a melon won't improve after it has been harvested. Of course you can't do anything about harvesting melons before they ripen but you can select mature melons from the market. Be sure the entire surface is well netted. Don't buy smooth or "slicker" melons.

High quality cantaloupes usually have no part of the stem attached. If picked at maturity, or vine ripeness, they should have a circular, depressed area about the size of a dime at the stem end. Such melons are said to have been picked at "full slip."

Many people select cantaloupes on the basis of the aroma; but this can get you a poor melon as well as a good one. Melons that have been out of refrigeration for several hours or ones that are overmature can also meet the aroma test.

Squeezing or pressing melons to determine softness can lead you astray too. After several customers have given this test to the same melon, it obviously will pass the "softness" test regardless of quality.

Soybean harvest is just around the corner. Some preliminary adjustments to your combine can save you two or three bushels of soybeans per acre during harvest. You can tell easily what your field loss is and what is causing it. Simply count the number of beans you find in one square foot, every four beans represent a loss of one bushel an acre. Repeat this count in several spots, and take an average to get a good figure.

Check on the shatter loss from the cutterbar by making your count just behind the platform or header. Cutterbar loss varies with speed so you may want to take several counts at different speeds to see which is best for lowest loss.

Adjust the combine cylinder according to the manufacturer's directions. This adjustment is so touchy that a cylinder turning 100 r. p. m. too fast will often cause beans to crack.

Wendell Bowers, extension agricultural engineer at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says that at least 75 percent of all plows in Illinois are improperly adjusted, causing them to pull from 10 to 20 percent harder than they should.

Proper plow adjustment reduces wear on the tractor and plow and may lower fuel consumption by as much as 30 percent.

For full information on how to adjust a plow correctly, write my office for a copy of Circular 755, "6 Steps in Adjusting Moldboard Plows."

Builders Would Bar Compulsory Aid to Schools

(CNS Community New Service) Legal action to bar compulsory contributions by developers for school construction has been filed in the Cook county circuit court. The suit asks that a Park Ridge ordinance requiring $300 payments per lot in planned subdivisions be declared illegal.

It also asks that Consolidated School District 64 be restrained from spending any of $63,300 thus far collected from builders and that the money be returned to them.

The suit charges the ordinance is "arbitrary and discriminatory" and passed without legislative authority.

The action is a "friendly" spit filed by an attorney to resolve the issue which is expected to be taken to the state supreme court.

If the Park Ridge ordinance is declared unconstitutional it will mean losses in income for school construction in other communities that have similar ordinances. These include Matteson, Dolton, Morton Grove, Olympia Fields, Downers Grove, Palatine and Northbrook.

Contributions required in these communities range from $125 to $500 either per lot or per home.

The suit was brought on behalf of Park Ridge builders by the Home Builders Council of Cook county.

Attorney Edward L. S. Arke-ma filed the suit.

Named in the suit are city of Park Ridge, Mayor Fred Haack, City Clerk Charles Richards, City Manager James Galloway, Treasurer Hugh Jones, Building Commissioner Cernon Soderstrom and School District 64.

PTA Doings

Now is the time according to PTA officials, to get in step with the 1956-57 season Parent Teacher membership. Mrs. Elmer Knudsen, membership chairman will be present at the next meeting, Oct. 5 to enroll all members, or if convenient, send your membership fee to school with your child in the envelope provided within the school brochure mailed to all parents prior to school's opening.

A magazine that very ably tackles and informs parents on most problems of understanding our children better and many other interesting articles is the Parent Teacher magazine. Mrs. Walter Barton, publications chairman will meet members at the Oct. 5 meeting.

Tinley PTA is working with the recreation problem and have plans for square and social dancing for 7 and 8 grade students to be held twice a month at the school auditorium. A small admission charge will be made. Chaperones for these evenings are needed. Call Mrs. Warren Ecklund, chairman to offer your services. Each one doing their bit will be helping their child as well as other children.

The executive board members were host to the faculty Aug. 31 at a tea. A get-acquainted tea for mothers of 1st grade students was held Sept. 13 at 1:15 in the Tinley school building.

Nine Different Ways to Finance Remodeling

There are at least nine different ways for home owners to finance bathroom remodeling, says the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Asso.

Open-end mortgage. This allows a home owner to re-borrow money already paid on his present mortgage. Repayment is made by increasing the present monthly mortgage rate or by extending the mortgage contract for additional years. In either case, the interest rate of the new loan is the same as that applied to the original mortgage.

Second mortgage. Many banking agencies holding a mortgage may grant a home improvement loan to a home owner with good credit. Such a loan is called a second mortgage and usually carries a lower interest rate than non-mortgage plans.

Title I Home Improvement loan. The Federal Housing Administration insures low interest home improvement loans of qualified lending agencies for a one family dwelling the loan insurance limit is $3,500, repayable within five years.

Veterans Administration Insured loan. Veterans may set aside part of their $10,000 GI mortgage for home improvements. This loan is insured by the VA and obtained through private banking institutions at interest rates up to 4 1-2 per cent. The repayment time is 30 years.

Direct Veterans Administration loans. The VA offers direct home improvement loans to veterans in roughly 2,500 counties where other financial aid is hard to obtain. These loans usually have a low interest rate. Conventional Property Improvement loans. Some banks and agencies will lend up to $2,500 for home remodeling purposes. The borrower is allowed three years to repay the money.

Own Plan loans. Many banking institutions offer their own plans for home improvement loans. Generally these loans have liberal credit terms.

Personal loans. Such loans usually have short pay periods and high interest rates. However, they may be obtained for amounts of $300 up to $2,500.

Installment contract. Many credit and installment plans are available for home modernization projects. A bathroom modernization or expansion program, for example, can be done with a little money down and low monthly payments.

Could you answer this $64,000 Question?

What wood is the unquestioned king of baseball bat material? White Ash would be the winning answer. Some 750,000 board feet of it are used each year to keep baseball teams supplied with bats... Before the advent of paper, the inner bark of Ash was used to write on. Indians also rubbed the leaves on mosquito bites and bee stings for medicinal relief... Now popular for wall paneling, Ash has great shock-resisting power, resists warping and shrinking, is creamy white with pronounced grain. Two grades for your selection.
